

BOND INSANE

John C. Bond, late auditor of the State of West Virginia, was declared insane by a jury in the Circuit Court of Kanawha County, last Saturday. Bond was on trial for the misappropriation of funds while Auditor. The plea of insanity was offered. The jury found him insane now, but they found that he was not insane at the time he was charged with spending the State's money for his own benefit.

Last October Governor Gore removed Bond from office, and appointed Secretary of State Geo. W. Sharp to act as auditor. The State Senate prepared to try Bond on impeachment proceedings and he resigned. The Judge of the Circuit Court of Kanawha county committed Bond to the State hospital for the insane at Huntington.

WM. H. OVERHOLT, DEAD

On Monday, a telegram was re

The School
Satur
In sp
met g enter schoc
Dist
Whit
of ho
51 p
31, E
Th
large
of H
H
Ken
bank
M McN
Po
Blac
Ron
St

---

Greenbrier Independent.

---

THURSDAY, JAN. 10TH, 1901.

---

LOCAL MATTERS.

---

BALED HAY can be had at the Mason Hardware Store.

YOUR water rents are due to-day.-- Please call at this office and pay.

LEAVE your orders for clover seed at the Mason Hardware Store, Lewisburg.

FOR SALE
—a good ri
ply to C. F.

FOR sev
my farm
mare, a b owner ca keeping

MISS
Charles
as a ty
accept

...s C. Coll-
of way in others to 45 and 46,

...weeks I ing admit-
r paper.
ter's ink
nly three etiele for ng other n would ghter.—
ne forth
eveloped started
avour.—
Spring
nbrier's ng with ougilist
ombat,
in the r aspir-
forget:
- letter
yn Ser-
was so unt of expert

...s and
ell dis-

The steady subscriber who pays in advance.
—Exchange.

Act of a Lunatic.

John Beard, of the Levels, shot and killed Jim Phillips at his home on Droop Mountain last Saturday, (the 29th ult.) Mr. Beard had been an inmate of the Weston Insane Asylum for some years but had been discharged. He had been acting strangely of late, and came very near shooting his brother Hugh. A warrant for lunacy was taken out and was in the hands of the officer when the tragedy occurred.

He armed himself with a 32 calibre Winchester rifle and went in the direction of Hill's Creek. When he reached the top of Droop Mountain he turned and walked along the crest of the mountain to Jim Phillips' home. He lived on the McClure place on the Marlinton and Lewisburg Turnpike. Arriving there he asked for Phillips and was told that he was hauling fodder. Beard went in search of him but missed seeing him. Coming back he called Phillips out of the house. Phillips' wife and daughter cautioned him that Beard was looking wild, and put a revolver in his pocket. When he came up to Beard the latter asked him to walk up the road with him a little way as he had something to tell him. Phillips must have seen that something was wrong, and refused and tried to get Beard to

GOOD COUNTRY

A FEW OF

8 lbs. Roas
6 Africa Ja

1901.

Our Fo
ance Sa 10th, an

As in the WINTER

IN C

ing our aspir-
et soon forget-
r other letter
for town Ser-
at it was so e a recount of k, our expert
y man.

neatness and conceal dis-
pith and mo-
nspiring m
attract wide bring their he people for nt trusts.
e meetings
ome, as old
y, "mighty
at have the with such

l daughter, urned from
ves. friends
tte county.
e, from far siting their
e days ago.
ed, but for where from.
RN BILL.

her.
ke county.
t. apples
eaved 26

ing him. Conning back he called Phillips out of the house. Phillips' wife and daughter cautioned him that Beard was looking wild, and put a revolver in his pocket. When he came up to Beard the latter asked him to walk up the road with him a little way as he had something to tell him. Phillips must have seen that something was wrong, and refused and tried to get Beard to go away. Beard attempted to enter through the gate and was opposed by Phillips. While struggling with the gate Beard shot and killed him.

After the shooting Beard went home, ate his supper and went to bed as if nothing had happened. He was taken while asleep, and seemed to have no recollection of the occurrence. He said he had not seen Phillips for two weeks.
He was brought to jail by special officers
C. P. Dunlap and Henry Payne.

The insane man is a son of W. W.
Beard, one of the leading men of the county, who has a fine plantation at the foot of Droop mountain in the Levels.
The slain man had been a tenant of his but some time since had moved. He was about 50 years of age. The killing was witnessed by Phillips' wife and daughter.

The prisoner was adjudged a lunatic by Justice Curry under the ordinary proceedings. He is about 30 years of age.—Pocahontas Times.

MAMMOTH, the huge steer now at the Kansas City stockyards, is to be a prominent feature at the World's

TOOTH, and As in the WINTER G

IN C

For DUR
section. O
this Stock
reduce it d

 Don't f

UNDER
which now go cost.

IN HATS.

We have n

AS SP

mighty ve the such collection of the Phillips for two weeks.

He was brought to jail by special officers
C. P. Dunlap and Henry Payne.

The insane man is a son of W. W. Beard, one of the leading men of the county, who has a fine plantation at the foot of Droop mountain in the Level. The slain man had been a tenant of his but some time since had moved. He was about 50 years of age. The killing was witnessed by Phillips' wife and daughter.

The prisoner was adjudged a lunatic by Justice Curry under the order ommission

y. Coffway in him,

The steady subscriber who pays in advance.

—Exchange.

rs to

46,

Act of a Lunatic.

John Beard, of the Levels, shot and killed Jim Phillips at his home on Droop Mountain last Saturday, (the 29th ult.) Mr. Beard had been an inmate of the Weston Insane Asylum for some years but had been discharged. He had been acting strangely of late, and came very near shooting his brother Hugh. Warrant for lunacy was taken out and was in the hands of the officer who was occurring